Hymn 117

“Jesus, Lover of My Soul”

Response

Psalms 104:1-9, 24, 35c (ESV)

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, you are very great!
You are clothed with splendor and majesty, covering yourself with light as with a garment, stretching out the heavens like a tent.

He lays the beams of his chambers on the waters;

he makes the clouds his chariot;

he rides on the wings of the wind;

he makes his messengers winds,

his ministers a flaming fire.

He set the earth on its foundations,

so that it should never be moved.

You covered it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains. At your rebuke they fled; at the sound of your thunder they took to flight.

The mountains rose, the valleys sank down
to the place that you appointed for them.

You set a boundary that they may not pass,
so that they might not again cover the earth.

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Let sinners be consumed from the earth,

and let the wicked be no more!

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

Praise the Lord!

The Servant Leader

Find the 26 bold words from Mark 10:42-45 (PP).

So Jesus gathered his students and taught them, “You have seen how the rulers of other peoples lord their authority over them, and how their so-called great ones are simply tyrants. But it must not be so among you; for whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be the slave of everyone. Don’t you also realize that the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life to purchase the liberation of so many?”
