Hymn 146 “Shall We Gather at the River?”

Response Psalm 67 (ESV)

May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us,
that your way may be known on earth,
your saving power among all nations.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

let all the peoples praise you!

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you judge the peoples with equity
and guide the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

let all the peoples praise you!

The earth has yielded its increase;

God, our God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us;

let all the ends of the earth fear him!

It Is Well with My Soul

Horatio Spafford, 1873

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
It is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate
And has shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin—O the bliss of this glorious thought—
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more;
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul.

O Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll,
The trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend;
“Even so”—it is well with my soul.

Find the 24 bold words from John 14:23-27 (PP).

Jesus answered him, “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come and live with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is the Father’s who sent me. I say these things to you while I am still with you. Yet the Champion, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and remind you of everything I said to you. I leave you in peace; my peace I give to you. I do not give peace to you as the world gives. Do not allow your hearts to be troubled or afraid.”
